Dr. Hiral Tipirneni Announces “Politician Debbie Lesko” Ad, First of AZ-08 Special General Election

Highlights GOP Nominee’s Political Shenanigans, Drawing Contrast With Dr. Tipirneni’s Lifetime of Caring for Arizona’s Families

GLENDALE, AZ – Today Dr. Hiral Tipirneni, an emergency room physician, cancer research advocate, and candidate for Arizona’s 8th Congressional District, announced her campaign’s first ad buy in the special general election. The spot is titled “Politician Debbie Lesko.”

“I’m a doctor, not a politician, and I’m running for Congress because it’s more apparent now than ever that Washington is broken,” stated Dr. Tipirneni. “It’s time for a change, and we can’t just keep sending the same types of politicians to DC and expect different outcomes,” Hiral said.

“Our campaign intends to keep communicating with West Valley voters throughout this election about issues and values that matter most to them,” said Dr. Tipirneni. “We know from months of making phone calls and knocking on doors that health care, retirement security and educating our kids and grandkids are concerns shared by our communities yet ignored in Washington – this must change,” Hiral asserted.

Dr. Hiral Tipirneni (“HERE-uhl tipper-NEH-knee”), an emergency room physician and cancer research advocate, is a candidate for Arizona’s 8th Congressional District. After losing her mother and nephew to cancer, she left emergency medicine to concentrate on cutting-edge cancer research. Now she leads teams of researchers, clinicians, and patient advocates in the fight against breast cancer, prostate cancer and childhood leukemia. At the age of three, Hiral came to America from India with her family in pursuit of the American dream. Hiral and her husband met while in medical school in Ohio. They have lived in the Phoenix area, where their three children were born and raised, for more than 20 years. She is on the board of directors for the Maricopa Health Foundation.
