Dr. Hiral Tipirneni Endorsed by Hon. Grant Woods, Former Arizona Attorney General

Democratic Candidate for Arizona's 8th Congressional District Earns Endorsement From Republican and First Congressional Chief of Staff to the Late Senator John McCain

PEORIA, AZ – Last night at a town hall in Surprise attended by nearly 100 area residents, Dr. Hiral Tipirneni, an emergency room physician, cancer research advocate, and candidate for Arizona's 8th Congressional District, was endorsed by Grant Woods, Arizona's attorney general from 1991 to 1999 and the late Senator John McCain's first congressional chief of staff.

"If everyone in the 8th District could spend an hour with Hiral Tipirneni, she would win in a landslide. She's smart, independent, articulate and understands the complexities of important issues. In other words, she is just what our country needs in Congress," declared Mr. Woods. "Do yourself a favor and get to know Hiral Tipirneni. Independent, experienced, and really smart, she will quickly become a leader for Arizona and the Congress," he added.

"I'm incredibly honored and humbled by this endorsement, and receive it in the bipartisan spirit with which it's given," said Dr. Tipirneni. "Mr. Woods' history of integrity, keeping country first, and putting people before politics are things all of us seeking or serving in public office should uphold." Hiral stated.
