Dr. Hiral Tipirneni Announces “Republicans for Hiral,” Second Ad Buy for AZ-08 General Election

Highlights Bipartisan Support of Everyday Republicans from Arizona’s 8th Congressional District

PEORIA, AZ – Today Dr. Hiral Tipirneni, an emergency room physician, cancer research advocate, and candidate for Arizona’s 8th Congressional District (AZ-08), announced her campaign’s second ad of the 2018 general election. The spot is titled “Republicans for Hiral,” and will be airing on cable and broadcast television. The ad can be viewed here: <https://youtu.be/IV4DGMz6m2k>.

“When we started this campaign in July 2017, it was always about solving problems and improving lives, something I’ve done my entire career. It was never about the D or the R,” stated Dr. Tipirneni. “I am both proud and humbled to receive bipartisan support from friends, neighbors and community members throughout the district,” Hiral said.

Dr. Tipirneni has also been endorsed by former Arizona Attorney General Grant Woods \(R\), who said, “If everyone in the 8th District could spend an hour with Hiral Tipirneni, she would win in a landslide. She’s smart, independent, articulate and understands the complexities of important issues. In other words, she is just what our country needs in Congress.” You can view his endorsement video here.

On September 17, the campaign released its first ad buy of the general election, “People First,” which can be viewed here: <https://youtu.be/mjNhjTOK8pl>. Four days earlier, the first digital ad of the general election, “Hiral’s Oath,” was unveiled and can be viewed here: <https://youtu.be/2JVByZEGDRo>.

Tipirneni is closing on Lesko 48-44, according to a recent survey of AZ-08 voters. This poll showed that since an August 2018 baseline survey, Tipirneni has closed a 9-point deficit, putting her within the margin of error, and poised to flip this congressional seat.
