Since closing down the campaign office to maintain social distancing last month, Hiral's campaign has shifted voter outreach efforts to online mediums. This digital ad is part of an effort to reach voters virtually. She has also hosted Facebook Live Town Halls, Zoom meetings for volunteers and supporters where she has used her background in medicine to keep Arizonans informed on updated information on the crisis and answer their questions about the disease and their health. She has also started peer to peer community phone banks and set up a page of her website to connect those hurt economically by the crisis with resources that can provide some relief.

"I decided to run for Congress because as an emergency physician I saw how important it was that every American have access to quality, affordable healthcare. The current COVID-19 crisis has highlighted the need to make our healthcare system and economy work for every American," said Dr. Hiral Tipirneni. "Now more than ever we need leaders who will fight for hardworking families, small businesses, and seniors who are most vulnerable to get the resources they need to succeed."

About Hiral

Dr. Hiral Tipirneni has dedicated her career to improving health care in her community, first as an emergency room physician serving the Phoenix area. After losing her mother and nephew to cancer, Hiral directed her passion and problem-solving skills to evaluating and directing funding for cutting-edge cancer-research. She now leads teams of researchers, clinicians, and patient advocates in the fight to treat and cure breast cancer, prostate cancer, and childhood leukemia.

Hiral and her family immigrated to this county to pursue the American dream. She and her husband Dr. Kishore Tipirneni chose to build their life in the Valley, where they have lived for more than two decades and raised their three children.

Hiral is running in Arizona's 6th Congressional District, which is currently represented by Congressman David Schweikert, who is under investigation over allegations that he misspent official funds and received illegal campaign contributions.

Hiral's campaign is on the DCCC Red to Blue list and has previously earned the endorsements of eight labor groups representing over 42,100 Arizona workers, Emily's List, End Citizens United, League of Conservation Voters, NARAL, Planned Parenthood, 314 Action, ASPIRE PAC, Brady PAC, AZ-02 Congresswoman Ann Kirkpatrick, AZ-01 Congressman Tom O'Halleran, and nine members of the Arizona legislature.
