Arizona Political Leaders Emphatically Endorse Dr. Hiral Tipirneni for Congress

New endorsements highlight Dr. Tipirneni's commitment to prioritize Arizona families

PHOENIX, AZ - Six prominent Arizona civic leaders have rallied behind Dr. Hiral Tipirneni and endorsed her candidacy to represent Arizona's 6th District in Congress. The group cited her willingness to work across the aisle and loyalty to the district, not corporate interests or party bosses, as reasons for supporting her campaign. The list of endorsers includes:

- Kate Gallego, Mayor of Phoenix
- Ginny Dickey, Mayor of Fountain Hills
- Dennis DeConcini, Former U.S. Senator from Arizona
- Grant Woods, Former Arizona Attorney General
- Fred DuVal, Member of the Arizona Board of Regents
- Terry Goddard, Former Arizona Attorney General

"Arizona needs to send Hiral to the House. Now more than ever, we must rely on data and science to formulate policy solutions that will pull our nation out of this pandemic. Dr. Tipirneni is a proven problem-solver who will bring her expertise to Washington at a time when this country and this state desperately need her," said Kate Gallego.

"Dr. Tipirneni is exactly what the people of this district need - smart and thoughtful representation with integrity and accountability," said Ginny Dickey. "We can have confidence that she recognizes and respects the contributions of local communities to our state and country and will be a strong partner."

"Having served in the U.S. Senate, I know that what this country needs is quality, accessible health care - particularly for our seniors and Americans with pre-existing conditions. Dr. Tipirneni will arrive in Washington ready to fight for the health insurance coverage of millions of Arizonans, and that is why I am proud to endorse her candidacy for Congress," said Dennis DeConcini.

"I'm proud to endorse Hiral for Congress. We need to put partisanship aside and elect people who are worthy of the office they hold. Hiral will reach across the aisle to work with other members of Congress regardless of their party affiliation, and this determination to get the job done will greatly benefit the residents of this district," said Grant Woods.

"As Chair of the Research and Health Sciences Committee, I cannot think of a better candidate than Dr. Hiral Tipirneni, an ER doctor and cancer research advocate," said Fred DuVal. "She knows just how vital it is that we invest in research and medicine in our Arizona higher education system so that our kids will be prepared to compete in a competitive economy."

"Dr. Tipirneni will be a refreshing, new kind of Congress Member. She will work tirelessly for the people of AZ-06, not party manipulators or corporate power brokers. I am proud to endorse Hiral because I know she will listen to hard-working Arizona families, not the dirty money and backroom dealers," said Terry Goddard.

"These leaders have done incredible things for the people of Arizona over the course of their careers," said Dr. Tipirneni. "I am proud to have earned their endorsements, and I hope to continue their work of fighting for the people of Arizona once I am elected to Congress in November."
